Monterey Peninsula editor

Lots of Lotus memories at the Monterey Historics, captured in photos by many of our members. Thanks.

Pebble Beach was cool and foggy, with only four British cars allowed to park there, and well hidden at that.

The auctions? I'm sure lots of money changed hands. High-end cars, like high-end California real estate, is not in a depressive cycle.

Many of us had a nice time at Mike Ostrov's, with guest, Shin Yoshikawa.

If anyone is planning to go to the WCLM but has not signed up, you still have time and the form is enclosed.

Sorry to be so brief here, but I'm packing for vacation...fly tomorrow, Goodwood

September Meeting

Friday, September 19th, 7:30 pm

Host: There is no venue for the meeting, as none could be found. Any hosts for the October meeting??

Mike's Place editor

Fun had by all, and it was a large turnout. Shin Yoshikawa arrived in a 3 seat Matra. He brought many of his prints, with many bought immediately.

Mike will have another event at the end of this month.
